Award for Campaigner

June 20th-26th celebrates Refugee Week and several of our licensees work directly and indirectly in providing help and support for refugees based in UK. Layla Ismail (pictured below) is one of the founding members of Refugee Women of Bristol, who are based at EBC. She was recently named winner of the Contribution to the Community Award at the Bristol and Bath Women in Business Awards in recognition of her local and national campaigning work.

Layla has campaigned for the rights of women and girls affected by female genital mutilation and was rightly proud of the award, which was voted for by local business people. She said "It shows how Bristol businesses care about the support we provide to the most vulnerable women in our communities".

Layla was born in Somalia where FGM was a common practice for girls, before moving to Bristol in 1995. She has worked tirelessly to help to raise awareness of this issue locally and nationally, building strong relationships with the NHS, police, child protection board and the local community.

Inventor at Old Schoolhouse

Dave McCann is based at Old Schoolhouse and has a long history of setting up businesses in catering and hospitality. Recently he decided to turn his entrepreneurial gaze to a new sector after spotting a gap in the market for parts associated with installing combi boilers. This led to the birth of Fitters Mates earlier this year.

Dave's new time saving products have caused a great deal of interest in a big market and he was offered a free stand at 'Installer 2016', one of the main trade shows for gas fitters and plumbers.

Following a highly successful showing Fitters Mates have now formed a partnership with a manufacturer and plans to significantly ramp up production of his innovative products.
